

Vipassana meditation - The New Year's Retreat with Sister Candasiri from 27th December 2011 to 1st January 2012

This retreat takes place at Vanuv statek in village of Dubovice near Pelhrimov in the Czech – Moravian Highlands (the same place where the spring retreat with Bhante Sayado U Tejaniya took place). You can virtually visit the place at Sister Ajahn Candasiri lives in England in Amaravati, where she is a senior nun in the Thai Forest Tradition. She has been a nun for more than 30 years and has taught and led retreats in many places, also in the Czech Republic, where she is appreciated for her kind attitude and for the fact that all her retreats have got an essence of cultivating kindness towards oneself alongside vipassana meditation. She also takes a special interest in Christian-Buddhist understanding.

The financial contribution towards the cost of the retreat, including accommodation and food (breakfast and lunch, there are no suppers at the retreat) is 135 euros. This does not include the teachings and the financial appreciation of the teacher, which is voluntary but very much welcome.
